

Approved Work Session Minutes

The Grass Lake Charter Township Board met on Tuesday, April 23, 2013 for the monthly work session at 8:30 a.m. at the Township conference room. Board members Stormont, Brennan, Hart, Clark, Lesinski, Loveland present. Absent: Adams, Jr.

Items discussed:

- Resignation of Thomas Nolte, Zoning Administrator/Building Inspector and compensation due for inspections made thru April 13, 2013.
- Job description for Zoning Administrator
- Consolidating with Napoleon and Summit Townships for Zoning Administrator and Building Official/Building Inspector
- Mortimer property that is land locked, not buildable and adjoins Township hall property
- “We Love Grass Lake Day” which is a community project initiated by the Family Worship Center. This is to be held on May 11th. The project is to clean the Township roadsides. They will be serving a healthy light breakfast and lunch. There will be cost involved for gloves, safety jackets and food. The Wellness Center and Copper Nail will be giving donations.
- Leoni Township going to meter reading instead of reu”s. Our Attorney states that for major projects on the Grass Lake/ Napoleon Common Fund sewer, that it should be by Township Boards approval.
- Appointment of Lacey O’Quinn to the Zoning Board of Appeals and that By-Laws need to be adopted for the Zoning Board of Appeals.
- Community Park projects – Trevor McGinn working on the bike park. Greg Cagney is getting price for fencing, Stormont is getting prices for scoreboards for #3 ball field. Lesinski and Brennan are working on the donation sign for the park.

Work Session adjourned at 10:00 a.m.
